

See Hawaii First

EVERYBODY SAYS that it is a fine thing for the Hilo Board of Trade to advertise Hawaii; but—

Talk Is Cheap

A GOOD MANY PEOPLE ARE "FROM MISSOURI"

and we ask you Honolulu people who have recently been to Hawaii, to help along the good work and prove our statements by telling your friends what you saw and what you think about our claims:

That Hawaii is a good place:

For spending a restful, quiet but invigorating vacation;

For spending a vigorous, tramping, exploring vacation;

For taking long or short auto trips:

For seeing spectacular scenery, tropic jungle scenery;

and volcanic phenomena of all kinds:

That the transportation and accommodations are good:

That the prices are reasonable.

For literature and particulars, See in Honolulu: Hawaiian Promotion Committee, Inter-Island Steamship Co., Volcano Stables Co., Waterhouse Trust Co.

THERE MAY BE

OPPOSITION TO PINKHAM

But there can be no opposition to the claim:

1. That a chance to a cooler climate during the summer months is good for the Honolulu man, woman or child. It better fits them for the duties of the coming year. The Volcano Company furnishes this climate. The highest temperature at the Volcano House this month has been 72 degrees.

2. Economy is necessary. Everybody is counting the cost these days. We have done the same, and have made a special summer rate of $24.50 for a week, $45 for two weeks, $85 for a month, for first-class board and lodging, with no charge for climate, fern and koa forests for nothing, and scenery thrown in for good measure.

Take the Saturday Mauna Kea—direct run to Hilo, and let us prove what we claim. See Waterhouse Trust Co. for details.

INDIAN MOTOCYCLES HAVE QUITE A HISTORY; HOW THEY WERE NAMED

"Very few people know that the Indian Motorcycle was named three years before it was even conceived," says J. W. Harry, of E. O. Hall & Son, local distributor for the gasoline prototype of the red man. "It is an interesting story. Is the inside chapter of the birth of the Indian," he continues.

In 1897 the Hendee Manufacturing Co. was building Silver King, and Silver Queen bicycles, gentlemen's and ladies' models, respectively, in Springfield, Mass. Its business was pretty healthy for that period, when the bicycle boom had spent itself, and the "bottom was dropping out" of many plants, the annual output being in neighborhood of 4,000 machines. Incidentally the company enjoyed considerable export business transacted through New York commission houses. These shipments consisted of what were known as "name-plate" bicycles.

"When a commission firm placed an order calling for 100 bicycles or so, the title of this particular lot of machines was specified, also, and name plates attached accordingly. In the course of time, naturally, a large quantity of Hendee built bicycles went abroad under all sorts of names. Practically all of these machines were identical save in name, and sometimes the color. For some time the company had been opposed to this practice, and finally resolved to take the bull by the horns, even at the cost of losing considerable business.

"President Hendee made a trip to New York, and took the matter up with the commission houses. At the first place he stated his mission, and proposed that all export shipments in future bear one name. He also proposed the name, 'American Indian' on the strength of the world wide prominence of the American Indian himself, and the culminating value of such a title applied to a bicycle. The proposition made a favorable impression and the first firm approached acceded to it without serious opposition.

"By good fortune all of the Hendee Company's brokerage customers were lined up favorably toward the new policy, and it went into effect immediately. At the factory, however, the new line was referred to as 'Indian' for short. It was not long before President Hendee came to a full realization of the value of the name he had chosen, and he decided to drop all other lines and build Indian bicycles exclusively.

"When the motorcycle was developed a few years later, it was out of the question to think of calling it anything but Indian, as this already had proved a winner on the bicycles. In fact, the name fitted the motorcycle even better than it did the bicycles, and it was not a great while before the new chief deposed the old one from the wigwam altogether. That is why there is an Indian Motorcycle today. Incidentally it enjoys a far greater acquaintance in foreign lands than did its predecessor, and that without the use of a prefix to indicate its nationality."

BAR THE GERM

One thing is certain—the busy little germ is responsible for about all the ills that flesh is heir to; and if we can bar its entrance we can keep our systems free from the seeds of disease. The natural cavities of the body and the openings afforded by cuts, scratches or insect bites are the points we should guard; and it is not enough to just keep them clean. The germ is persistent, aggressive; and more than cleanliness is necessary to quiet its activity.

Keep the germ out by destroying it. Make the fight offensive instead of defensive. Nip trouble in the bud. The daily use of a reliable Peroxide antiseptic as a mouth wash or douche, or applied locally to cuts, bruises, scratches or insect bites, will do this promptly and effectively.

The best antiseptic to use is LISTOGEN. It goes farther than Peroxide of Hydrogen by uniting with that most efficient germ destroyer the remedial and antiseptic properties of Thymol, Menthol and Eucalyptol.

These valuable elements take up the work where Peroxide of Hydrogen leaves off and with their help LISTOGEN not only destroys the germ but in some degree repairs the damage the germ has done.

Ask your druggist for LISTOGEN; you will delight in the purifying, refreshing sensation that it gives. 25 cts., 50 cts., and $1 a bottle, at Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd.—advertisement.

LARGE CROWD EXPECTED AT EMPIRE

"A Conversation on a House-top" will be the subject of an address delivered by David Carey Peters, pastor of the First Christian church, in the Empire theatre Sunday evening, the occasion being the seventh of the series of mass meetings for men now being held under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association.

With the exception of a few seats down in front, the theatre was crowded last Sunday evening with persons eager to see the photo play "From the Manger to the Cross," and it is expected that there will be an equally large attendance tomorrow evening, as Mr. Peters is sure to have a number of interesting things to say. There will be but one more meeting after tomorrow evening before the series of mass meetings begins in the Bijou theatre under the auspices of the Inter-Church Federation. These meetings are to be addressed by a prominent minister of Wichita, Kansas, who is soon to arrive in Honolulu.

The musical program for tomorrow evening will be furnished by Mrs. G. K. Tackabury, the prominent contralto; Miltner's orchestra and the association male quartet. The continued success of and the large attendance at these meetings has been very gratifying to the association. Mr. Peters' talks have made a deep impression and he has shown himself to be a gifted speaker to men.

FEEL BULLY? TAKE CASCARETS TONIGHT

A 10 cent box will keep your liver, stomach and bowels clean, pure and fresh for months.

Sick headache, biliousness, dizziness, coated tongue, foul taste and foul breath—always trace them to torpid liver, delayed fermenting food in the bowels or sour, gassy stomach.

Poisonous matter clogged in the intestines, instead of being cast out of the system is re-absorbed into the blood. When this poison reaches the delicate brain tissue it causes congestion and that dull, throbbing, sickening headache.

Salts, cathartic pills, oil and purgative waters force a passageway for a day or two—yes—but they don't take the poisons out and have no effect upon the liver or stomach.

Cascarets immediately cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels.

A Cascaret tonight will surely straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist means your head clear, stomach sweet and your liver and bowels clean and regular for months—advertisement.
